

My Journey on the Arctic Sunrise

Using your planning sheet and vocabulary mat to help you, write a diary entry from the perspective of a scientist aboard The Arctic Sunrise. What were you thinking and feeling? Write about the setting using your five senses.

Make sure that your writing includes:

- Personal pronouns (I, we, my, me) and that it is written in the first person;
- Powerful adjectives and descriptive phrases linked to your senses;
- Ambitious words and phrases to describe how you felt during the journey.

Dear Diary,

What a spectacular day I have had! It all began when... _____

In the distance, _____

During the journey, I felt _____

I'll never forget today because _____

My Journey on the Arctic Sunrise

Using your planning sheet, vocabulary mat and what you know about the genre, write a diary entry from the perspective of a scientist aboard The Arctic Sunrise. What were you thinking and feeling? Write about the setting using your five senses.

Describe your thoughts and experiences in a way which creates atmosphere and keeps your reader's interest.

